

Environmental law

(Jorg Sladič, Ph.D., Assist. Prof.)

Subjects code: EL

Year of Study: 1.

Lectures: 45

Exercises: 30

ECTS: 7

Contents subjects

- Definition of Environment and the Reasons for Legal Protection of Environment
- Principles of Environmental Law
- Principle of Anticipation
- Precautionary principle
- Polluter Pays Principle as Primary Principle and Alternative Socialization of Costs and Community Pays Principle
- Principle of Sustainable Development
- Principle of Public Participation
- Principle of Cooperation between State and Society in Environmental Matters
- Principle of Integration
- International Legal Acts on Protection of Environment
- Protection of Environment in the EU
- Slovenian Legislation on Protection of Environment
- Planning and Zoning of Physical Space,
- Regulation of Real Property, Land and Forrests
- Regulation on Water
- Protection of Flora and Fauna
- Regulation on Emissions – Noise, Electromagnetic Radiation, Dangerous Substances and other Substances,
- Waste Regulation
- Regulation on Mining
- The REACH Regulation
- Regulation on Genetically Modified Organisms