

Sustainable development of protected areas

(Irena Mrak, Ph.D., Associate Prof.)

Subjects code: SDPA

Year of Study: 1. or 2.

Lectures: 20

Exercises: 30

ECTS: 6

Contents subjects

- Purpose and aims of protecting individual areas on local, regional, national and global level
- Typology of protected areas in Slovenia and comparison with protected areas in the EU and throughout the world
- Methodology of studying sustainable development of protected areas
- Safety regimes in protected areas and their direct and indirect effect on everyday life within protected areas
- Protection and development role and relevance of protected areas within sustainable development on the level of local community, region, country and globally
- Options for sustainable development of selected economic activities (tourism, recreation, business activities)
- Attitude of residents towards protected areas - in selected cases in Slovenia, EU and in other parts of the world
- Environmental, social, economic and cultural capital of protected areas in Slovenia.
- Cases of good practice of protected areas in Slovenia, EU and in other parts of the world
- Management of protected areas – case of Slovenia, EU, other countries throughout the world
- Significance and performance of interpreting protected areas for the needs of achieving sustainable development